

[Printed letterhead]

26.6.1903

Dear friend!

I hasten to reply to your note.

You know that it will give me always pleasure to play either in public or privately and if matters can be arranged for my next visit I shall be much pleased. Only I am in duty bound to consult the interest of our guaranters. Will you therefore kindly tell Mrs. Robinson and ask whether she will communicate with Mr.

Speyer unless you prefer to

[page break]

do so yourself. I will be 72 years on next Sunday. May it be granted to me to play in public till next year.

With kindest greetings

your old friend

Joseph Joachim